Re: Case no. 09-cv-756-slc; Walker, Lamont v. Armson, Ryan et al

Dear Warden:

Under the Prison Litigation Reform Act, an inmate who files a lawsuit in federal court under the in forma pauperis statute must pay the $350 filing fee, by sending the fee to the court in installments of 20% of the preceding month's income in accordance with § 1915(b)(2). A review of our records shows that an inmate in custody at your institution filed the above referenced lawsuit in this court. His name and the case number assigned to his lawsuit are set forth below:

Inmate Name: Lamont D. Walker, #424869
Case No. 09-cv-756-slc

An initial partial payment was not required in this case. Your financial officer's obligation to deduct monthly payments until the filing fee has been paid in full is addressed in Lucien v. DeTella, 141F.3d 773 (7th Cir. 1998). If this inmate is transferred to another institution, the financial officer of that institution will need to know of his obligation so that monthly payments will continue.
